Turk's Nominates Loscam as Preferred Pallet Provider

Leading equipment pooling solutions provider, Loscam has announced that Turk's Poultry Farm Ltd, one of the NZ's leading Poultry Processors, has signed an agreement for managed pooled pallets across the country.

The new agreement between the two companies will see Loscam become the preferred pallet provider to Turks, supplying its highly regarded 4 way pallet that is bringing cost savings and handling and safety benefits to customers in New Zealand.

Turk's Poultry Farm Ltd's operations manager, Peter Hughes, said, "From the outset, the whole experience of dealing with Loscam has been a pleasant and professional one. Being able to tap in to the level of supply chain expertise that exists within Loscam has been beneficial for us and the pallet is the best on the market".

Loscam New Zealand Business Manager, Nick Trask, said, "It's always great to welcome on board a new customer in to the Loscam pool. It's also really pleasing when we're helping such a great New Zealand business to grow in this way as we help them to move, store and protect their goods through their supply chain in a cost effective, safe and environmentally sound way."

Turk's Poultry Farm Ltd was established in the 1990's, is a trusted name in chicken processing and smallgoods manufacturing.
